

The Council was formed to promote standards of excellence in dementia education to professionals and other caregivers who provide services to dementia clients. It is the goal of Certified Dementia Practitioners and Instructors to utilize one another's education, experiences, and networking support to develop and encourage comprehensive standards of excellence in direct-care skills, education, and sensitivity in the area of dementia care.